

Council OK's Record ASB Budget

Spartan Daily

SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE

$135,821 Slated For ASB Groups

By RAY BARCH

The Student Council yesterday okayed the whopping $135,771 budget recommended Tuesday by the Board of Control—and hiked the figure 50 dollars with a last minute appropriation to the Rally committee.

At the same time, the council referred back to the Control Board a request by The Spartan Daily that $1800 cut from its budget request be restored.

Daily Editor Leigh Weimers and Business Manager Larry Kaufman urged the council to reconsider the budget slash or face the possibility that lack of money will force the paper to quit publishing in April.

Weimers and Kaufman also asked the council to okay the publication of 7000 papers each day. Kaufman said the 7000 figure would give the paper a better business position with national advertisers. He added that the growing enrollment at State warranted the increase. The Spartan Daily currently publishes 6000 daily.

Weimers and Kaufman explained to the council that the original Spartan Daily request was made with no foreseeable increase in printing costs. Since that time (last spring) printing costs have gone up ten dollars an issue, for a total of $1380 for the year.

"Considering the cut of $1800 from our original request, the fact that even the original request was $1300 short, plus our need for 7000 issues to adequately serve the campus, we feel that a minimum of $3300 more than the revised allocation is needed," Spartan Daily Editor Leigh Weimers said last night.

Weimers and Kaufman will meet with the Board of Control to discuss this problem Tuesday.

The new budget, highest in the history of San Jose State, is parcelled out among more than 30 Associated Student Body organizations.

The largest appropriation—$42,000—is allotted to Men's Athletics, followed by Student Affairs office expenses, $19,500; McFadden Health Cottage, $18,250; and The Spartan Daily, $14,500.

Other top appropriations are: Awards committee, $5931; Music Department, $5100; Social Affairs, $3850; and Student Union, $3400. Remaining appropriations, alphabetically, are:

Associated Women Students, $1600; Community Service, $75; Class of '59, '60, '61, $200 each; College Lecture, $500; Co-Rec, $470; Freshman Camp, $700; Homecoming, $800; Insurance Fund, $500; Inter-Collegiate Pistol Team, $500; Inter-Collegiate Rifle Team, $700; Intramural, $1800; La Torre, $500; Lyke, $930; Placement Service, $150; Public Relations Fund, $275; Rally $1400; The Reed, $375; Religion in Life, $235; Reserve for Refund, $1000; ROTC Rifle Team, $84; Sparta Camp, $1119; Spartan from the Start, $1539; Speech and Drama, $1500; Speech Forensics, $875; Student Activities Board, $170; Student Council, $1775; Student Court, $175; Student Public Relations, $313; Women's Athletic Assn., $2000; Orientation Committee, $200; and Dr. Wahlquist's (Continued on Page 2)

IT'S STILL CROWDED

New buildings at San Jose State are just like a man's debts nowadays, the more money a guy makes the more calls there are on his pocketbook. Likewise, the more buildings that are added at SJS, the more crowded the classrooms and hallways seem. The above picture shows the congestion that takes place regularly in the new Centennial Hall between classes.

Proposed Millions Will Ease Problem

The space problem at SJS will be eased as a result of the proposed millions in building funds. Crowding in the Library, and lack of rehearsal space in the Music Building are but a few of the problems to be remedied by the additional building funds.

According to C. Grant Burton, executive dean of SJS, the Art Building will receive $256,104. The money will be used to buy new easels, paints, cabinets, and other items. The Industrial Arts Building will get $728,082 to purchase lathes, saws, drill presses and other shop tools.

Daytime Rally To Be Held Tomorrow

"Meet the Team," the campus' first daytime rally in years will be held in the area west of the Women's Gym at 12:30 p.m. Friday, according to Jack Clarke, entertainment chairman of the Rally Committee.

The site of the rally has been changed from the Inner Quad as previously reported because of the new grass in the Quad, Clarke said.

The State's Men Quartet, a student group composed of Dick Tash, piano; John Conn, vibes; Jim Bagly, drums; and Stafford Miller, bass, will entertain.

Bob Titchenal, SJS football coach, will introduce the '57 football team which will meet the Arizona State Sun Devils Saturday night.

Yell leaders and pom pon girls will be at the rally to assist the student body with the school songs, and Clarke expects to "fill up the entire area in front of the gym."

Clarke said that the music will start about 12:20 p.m., and the entire rally will last only 15 or 20 minutes.

30 Club To Meet For Discussion

Coming of Mrs. Nadine Hanks, president of the San Francisco alumnae chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, will be the major item for discussion at the meeting of the 30 Club today at 7:30 p.m., according to Cathy Ferguson, president of the club.

The meeting will be held in J107.

Stanford U. Flu Spreads Rapidly

Stanford's Encina Hall, formerly used as a business office, is now an infirmary for 56 students bedded down with what was termed "undoubtedly flu" by the Stanford Daily. Fifty-four more students filled the university's isolation hospital and rest homes, these being "practically all flu."

Yesterday, six students were dismissed from Encina Hall, though twelve more were admitted. Total number of flu cases for the day was not yet known at 5 p.m. Tuesday's total reached 97, 43 in Encina Hall. Twenty students were discharged from Encina Tuesday night, though 23 were admitted Monday.

Flu vaccine was given yesterday to Stanford's student police, student firemen, student administrators and freshmen. There has been no increase in the amount of vaccine available. Stanford was allotted enough for 700 shots.

According to the Stanford Daily, the flu seems to be hitting all campus living groups, and is not centered in any one place.

Dr. George Houck, director of the university health service, stated that the respiratory infection is not serious, and individual cases are mild.

SAC To Discuss Coronation Ball At Today's Meet

Plans for this year's Coronation Ball will be discussed this afternoon when the Social Affairs Committee meets at 3:30 p.m. in Room 117, Jan Whitney, publicity chairman reports.

Committees for the dance will be chosen at the meeting. Selections also will be made for a membership drive committee. A schedule for Monday night free movies will be drawn up at the meeting.

The social Affairs Committee announced the names of new officers for the fall semester. They include Jan Reid, chairman; Gordy Casaccia, vice chairman; Larry Anderson, treasurer; Donna Dean, recording secretary; Ginny Freeman, corresponding secretary; and Jan Whitney, publicity chairman.

White For Game

"Wear white to the game!" These are the final words of the Rally Committee, according to Mickey Simonet, chairman. She said that from now on students who do not wear white and show their student body cards will not be admitted to the game.

This ruling will be in effect for the Arizona State game Saturday, Miss Simonet warned.

Concert Tickets Are Now on Sale

Matinee tickets for the U. S. Navy Band concert, Oct. 20, are now on sale in the Students Affairs Business Office, Room 16, Don Ryan, ASB president, announced.

Special students' rate is 75 cents with an ASB card. Reservations for reserved seats, $1.50, at the evening performance may be obtained at the same office.

San Jose State Coed Is Horse Show Queen

By ANTHONY TARAVELLA

The British would say "she sits a horse well," but any red-blooded American male San Jose State College student will have to agree that Marti Joy Schroeder looks pretty sitting or standing.

Marti, 17, was named Horse Show Queen of the 1957 Grand National Livestock Exposition which will be held at the San Francisco Cow Palace, Nov. 1 to 10.

A veteran horse show exhibitor, Marti has been showing horses for three years, but this year her instructor sponsored her for queen of the show. She was selected from among many contestants.

Queen Marti is presently living at Walton Hall. Her home is in Saratoga. She is a freshman at San Jose State College majoring in Radio and TV.

The equestrian beauty owns two horses. The one she uses for shows is a three-gaited saddle horse which has liver chestnut coloring. The horse, whose name is Sally's May Day, is especially bred for saddle. She comes from as far away as Missouri where she was born.

Sally's May Day was shown by her lovely mistress in three other shows this year. In April she was on exhibit at the Cow Palace in San Francisco, in August in Santa Barbara, and in September she was seen at the State Fair in Sacramento. She won 26 trophies this season.

Marti and her horse have aced alone. At the various events judging was based partly on the horse and partly on the equitation of the rider.

"I've always loved horses," Marti said, "but I began riding only three years ago." Her plans for the future are to show horses for other competitors and trainers. She wants to continue riding as a sideline while she follows her studies at SJS.

HER MAJESTY

Marti Joy Schroeder, 17-year-old SJS freshman, was recently chosen Horse Show Queen of the 1957 Grand National Livestock Exposition. Marti, who comes from Saratoga, is a radio and T.V. major.

Year's First Telecast To Be Aired Today

The first student telecast of the fall semester will be aired today at 3:30 p.m. by the radio-television department.

The program, designed to orient new radio-TV students, is titled "Spartan View." It will originate in the Speech and Drama Building's television studio, Rm. 117, and is open to the public.

Featured on the program will be ASB president Don Ryan, Dr. Harold Crain, speech and drama department head, Frank McCann, radio-TV instructor, and W. Malcolm West, speech instructor.

The first three will be interviewed by Dan Box outside the Speech and Drama building, the first outdoor telecast by the department.

West will be interviewed by Ted Johansen in the main studio. The participants will discuss the selection of equipment and faculty, student body financial support of the telecast, and television's future on the campus.

West will preview viewers on his television program scheduled to appear in the spring on KPIX, San Francisco.

Japanese Child Art Display in Library

Child art from Japan is now on exhibit in Room 210 of the Library, adjoining the Humanities Room.

A number of the paintings shown are from San Jose's "sister city," Okayama. This group was loaned by San Jose Women's Club. Others were loaned by Philoma Goldworthy, art supervisor for the San Jose City Schools.

The paintings will be especially interesting to elementary education majors, according to Mrs. Nadine Hammond, assistant professor of art. Mrs. Hammond also noted that some of the work had aspects similar to American child art, possibly due to the occupation and the effects of teachers from the United States.

The exhibit will be on display until Oct. 21.

Fair Today

The weatherman predicts fair weather for Santa Clara Valley residents today. He foresees little change in temperature, a high between 70 and 79 degrees, and northwest winds ranging between 10 and 20 miles per hour.

President Wahlquist Named Co-Director of Ed Survey

Dr. John T. Wahlquist, president of San Jose State College, has been named co-director of a study of higher education in Utah. He has been in Salt Lake City, Utah, this week to set up a staff for the inquiry.

Jointly directing the study will be Dr. William F. Edwards, financial secretary to the First Presidency, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

Both men will continue in their present full-time positions but will devote extra time to directing this study to improve and coordinate Utah's higher education.

State Senator Orval Hafen, chairman of the Coordinating Board of Higher Education of the 1957 Legislature, announced the appointment of the two men Saturday.

President Wahlquist will be concerned primarily with the educational programs of the Utah universities and colleges while Dr.

Edwards will work on financial procedures.

Reports will be made to Senator Hafen's committee. The committee will report to the Legislative Council and to the 1959 Legislature.

President Wahlquist is a native of Heber, Utah, and was dean of the School of Education at the University of Utah when he accepted the presidency of SJS.

Camp Interviews

Applications for Spartacamp committee interviews must be turned in Tuesday, Oct. 8, by 4 p.m. in the Student Union, according to Robert W. Foy, committee member.

No previous attendance is needed, and applicants will be contacted as to when interviews will be held. The interview date has been set as Oct. 10.

Editorial

All a State of Mind

As you read this editorial, you will nearly have completed the second week of the 1957 fall semester. No, we're not going to congratulate you on this feat, but we're going to ask you to take a little time out to think about something other than homework or the "cute" freshmen.

We're going to ask you to think about San Jose State College. Will you give this a try?

Too often in the past we've heard disparaging remarks about good of SJS. They not only were disparaging, they were downright apologetic.

To put it mildly, this makes us highly annoyed.

There is no reason for Spartans to choke or thrash when a student from the neighboring farmland or a Berkeley hill-billy says, "I attend such-and-such a university; what about you?"

Feel free to look him squarely in the eye and be proud to tell him that you are a student at San Jose State.

And now, do not sit back and laugh at the paragraph above.

You have been here long enough to learn a few things about our college. It's big—larger than most, but yet not so large that it becomes a mere academic factory, turning out identically dressed and educated robots.

Its departments rate highly with the people in the so-called "outside world." If you think differently, just stick around until spring semester when the thundering herd of job interviewers moves in.

In short, people no longer can say with complete truth that San Jose State is trying to get into the "big time." In some respects, this may be true, but on the whole, let's face it. We're here.

Somehow, the apologetic feeling has stuck, much like an Asian flu virus or aphids on the ivy.

It's about time you started working to eliminate this major blight on our campus. Your inferiority complexes are not based on inferiority itself.

Grow up. Take a look around. You'll see what we mean.

committee, $400.

In other developments, the council:

—heard a request from the Flying 20, campus aviation club, that it be recognized as a student organization. Recognition would permit it to represent the college in aviation meets and also allow it to seek funds from the council. The request was referred to the Board of Control.

"She's getting up off the sundeck now—Whose turn to phone her next time?"

Matter of Opinion

By JIM DRENNAN

Many tears have been shed recently over the sad demise of "school spirit" at San Jose State.

The hand-wringers claim that the old rah-rah which is supposed to characterize a college student body is sadly missing here, and that we have no "traditions" to bind this school together.

Go to an average Spartan, wave the red flag on this issue, and you'll probably get a "Yeah, something ought to be done." Out loud, that is.

What he'll probably be thinking is, "So what?"

We don't ask, "So what?" but we do ask, "So why?"

The lack of "school spirit" at SJS isn't because of any lack of traditions. No, we don't have a Campanile or Coliseum, but we do have a pretty respectable-looking Tower. We don't have a wonderful football record, but a lot of schools that don't have maintained "school spirit." We DO have enough social events to keep any student who'd also like to maintain a decent grade point average busy. We have the Pushcart Relays and accompanying festivities, the Greek Show, post-game dances, Revelries, a big student government with plenty of jobs to go around, class meetings, the Coronation Ball, sports, etc., etc.

In addition, there are more than 100 clubs and interest groups to appeal to Spartans of every taste.

So, why the alleged lack of rah-rah? There are several reasons. First, SJS is a big, mushrooming school, a collection of departments and divisions each with their own loyalties, a giant educational factory attended by more than 10,000 students every day. The rapid growth of the college in the past few years and its present great size can make the establishment of "spirit" difficult. There isn't the opportunity for the feeling of closeness which fosters "spirit" at smaller schools.

Second, SJS students live off campus. There are no dormitories, and many students commute many miles to school every day. Any sense of identification with the school thus often is lost at the end of class.

Third, a large number of Spartans are married and have children. A man with a family is probably more inclined to think about where the next buck is coming from than he is to ponder the issues of student government. Sad, perhaps, but true.

This leads to our final point: that perhaps most of us have outgrown rah-rah. By the time we've cheered our way through grammar school, junior high, high school and even junior college, we may be getting a little hoarse.

Maybe this is a good thing. Isn't it the purpose of education to broaden the student's horizons, to make him aware of the world around him? The success of education lies in the leaving behind of childish things and of becoming a citizen of the world.

This is not to say that all student activities are childish, but we might ask ourselves whether some of what the mourners of rah-rah call our failure might be our success.

Spartan Spinners Are Hanging Up Dance Shoes

By ANTHONY TARAVELLA

Spartan Spinners are spinning no more. They are inactive and due to be extinct. And why is this group, which organized at San Jose

State College more than 15 years ago, hanging up its dancing shoes? There is no room for them here.

FOLK DANCE GROUP

The Spinners are a folk dancing group which has danced here on campus and at festivals and throughout northern California for years. They are members of the much larger State Federation of Folk Dancers.

At its peak, the Spartan Spinners Club had more than 50 ASB members.

The club has sought out many meeting places and had to give them up for one reason or another. At times it has met in the Women's Gym on campus, the basement of the old Science Building, public schools, and in the basement of the YWCA.

Spinners were struggling to hold together during the last fall semester. This fall they have ceased operation altogether.

SPINNERS IN PAST

In the past the Spinners have contributed toward the entertainment of the rest of the student body through the Spartan Revelries, but the group was mainly

Spartan Neophytes Happy Bareheaded

By CHARLENE SHATTUCK

Spartan neophytes (in other words, freshmen) should be thankful that they are not attending Willamette University in Salem, Ore. If so, they would not be bareheaded for long. At this university it is the practice for freshmen to wear gold and red beanies which, it is stated in the school paper, are needed "to protect the frosh from execution but not persecution."

Included in a story appearing in the "Willamette Collegian" advertising these beanies were the following words: "A special bargain price of $1.00 for freshmen girls is being offered by the Lettermen during the first week. The regular price of $1.00 will be paid by male freshmen."

And while we're on the subject of underclassmen, in an article which appeared in the Daily Californian it was stated that a report was made by Alex Sheriffs, assistant to the chancellor to the ASUC Executive Committee, on a recent survey taken at the University of California.

Lower division students were asked why they had come to Cal. One of the four reasons which were given by 86 per cent of the students was "I like the Cal football team." I can't help wondering how many of them have since transferred to Southern Methodist and Washington State.

S.F. Restaurateur Has Beer Steins

SAN FRANCISCO — (UP) — The nation's largest collection of historic beer steins in private hands recently was acquired by John Rickey, art connoisseur and well known San Francisco Bay area restaurateur.

Rickey bought more than 150 rare steins from Col. Fred Hetherton of southern California.

The oldest is a foot-high glass tankard with a silver lid, made in 1550 in the Lavitz factory near Nuremberg.

Another rarity, The Apostlekrug, is a Cruessen stein made out of a certain kind of clay near Cologne between 1600 and 1660. It gets its name from the fact that it has the 12 Apostles depicted around the base. Its mate was bought by William Randolph Hearst for $3000.

Probably the most valuable stein in the collection is a gold-lined, silver mug valued at $6000.

Gridders Scrimmage For Arizona State Encounter

By RANDIE E. POE

The Spartan grid team must show rapid improvement if it is to cope with Arizona State of Tempe Saturday night.

Neither Coach Bob Titchenal nor line chief Marty Feldman were pleased with the locals' work yesterday. Attempting to defend against the Sun Devils' multiple offense, SJS' first and second units were outfoxed numerous times. The tackling was ragged, to put it mildly.

Rapid Ray Norton, running ASC plays, broke away several times for long gainers.

Only one change was made in the SJS starting alignment. Jim Moore moved into an end spot claimed heretofore by Bob Duni-vant. Soph Dan Colchico holds forth at the other wing.

Nick Sanger and Bill Atkins (tackles), Ron Earl (center), and Herb Boyer and Stan Keith round out the first-string line.

Marv McKean probably will get the starting nod Saturday night at quarterback, with Harvel Pol-lard and Paul Webb at halfbacks, and Al (Senator) Chapman at full-back.

Also slated for heavy duty are quarterback Mike Jones, half-backs Norton and Sam Dawson, who just returned from sick bay, and fullback Claude Gilbert.

A statewide epidemic of flu in Arizona hit the Sun Devils team yesterday. Nine varsity performers—including crunching fullback Joe Belland and starting tackle Bart Jankans—were reported ill.

BELLAND, JANKANS STAR
Belland and Jankans were standouts in ASC's 19-7 victory over Idaho last week, with Jankans intercepting an Idaho pass and running 47 yards to score.

Among other players bedded down yesterday were Charlie (Choo Choo) Jones, second-string fullback, and quarterbacks Allen Benedict and Fran Urban. Sun Devil Coach Dan Devine said all players were not being sent to the infirmary. "We can't tell yet which of them will be back for the game this week," Devine said.

Trainer Art Dickinson intimated, however, that "anyone who gets the flu between now and Saturday will be very doubtful participants this week."

JIM MOORE

PAUL WEBB

End Jim Moore and halfback Paul Webb will have difficult assignments Saturday night against Arizona State, but both are capable of top-drawer performances. Moore bounced back last week after a let-down against Stanford. Webb, starting for the first time of his career against Denver, picked up 48 yards rushing.

Yankees Seek No. 2; Shantz Set

NEW YORK — (UP)—Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees named Bobby Shantz, a pint-sized southpaw, to pitch the second game of the World Series at Yankee Stadium today.

Shantz won 11 games and lost five this season—the same record which left hander Whitey Ford, who won yesterday's opening game, had.

Manager Fred Haney named Lew Burdette, an ex-Yankee farm hand who had a 17-9 record for Milwaukee this season, to pitch for the Braves. Burdette was acquired from the Yankees in a deal for Johnny Sain in 1951.

Ford, a brilliant "young pro," outpitched "old pro" Warren Spahn yesterday to score the fifth World Series victory of his career and give the New York Yankees a 3-1 triumph over the Milwaukee Braves in the 1957 opener.

The 36-year-old Spahn, a 21-game winner for the Braves, matched Ford pitch for pitch for the first four innings on this sunny, October afternoon with a crowd of 69,476 looking on in vast Yankee Stadium.

But in the fifth Spahn felt the sting of those big Yankee bats.

Coleman started the Yankee fifth with a single—his second straight hit—and reached third on two successive infield outs. Then Bauer rifled Spahn's first pitch to the 407-foot sign in right center field for a run-producing double.

In the sixth, the Yankees finished off Spahn as they scored their other two runs.

Delta Sigma Phi Ready

(Note: This is the second in a series concerning fraternity intramural football teams.)

With the league opener just one week away, fraternity teams are still switching men in order to find that winning combination. Most teams are still awaiting "pledging," so that they can add extra personnel.

Although Delta Sigma Phi is unable to name its complete team, athletic co-chairmen Gil Zaballos and Ron Blake have named five talented starters.

In the backfield, DSP will start Al Ceresa, all-city linebacker from Mission High in SF, and Larry Burton, all-county halfback from Palm Springs High.

At the guards, Tony Summers and Roger Carter are slated to start. Summers made the all-Southern California team at Palm Springs while Carter made the third all-Naval district team at Long Island.

Only one end has been chosen, Milt von Damm, all-SCVAL while playing for Los Gatos.

Tomorrow: Sigma Nu, Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Upsilon and Pi Kappa Alpha.

Haney Scoffs At NY Charges

NEW YORK — (UP)—Manager Fred Haney led the Milwaukee Braves yesterday in scoffing at New York stories that vast Yankee Stadium will be the New York Yankees' "secret weapon" in the World Series.

"Every park has its shadows and peculiarities," snapped Haney, who said he's "quite familiar" with the Stadium from his days with the St. Louis Browns. "Big league ball players don't worry about those things. I played here and I managed here and it's like any other park."

As a southern-fried citizen might phrase it today, the Damn Yankees are at it again. Milwaukee held tight for four innings yesterday, but then the inevitable was born ... Two clutch tallies in the sixth frame and Whitey Ford's scrooge-like five-hitter frustrated the Braves.

Like a multitude of other Yankee haters, this corner is acquiring ulcers rooting against Stengel's mechanical men ... It's becoming a bit ridiculous ... stirring up one's hopes only to watch the Yanks recoil and pull the game from the fire ...

If Bobby Shantz stands Fred Haney's lads on their heads today, it looks as if Milwaukee will have dug a deep grave.

STANFORD LINE-CHARGE TOUGH

After viewing the last half of last week's Stanford-Northwestern tilt, we'd like to join the throng of those praising the Indians' snappy line charge ... If Norm Manougian has an equal in college grid-don, somebody find him.

Bob Bronzan, Spartan football skipper for seven years, hopes to push SJS' most expansive intramural program this year ... The Intramural grid circuit is slated for activity in less than two weeks, and should be the best in history, both from a quantitative and qualitative standpoint ...

Scoter-sized Dick Verneil doesn't play too often at quarterback for the Spartans, but each time he enters the lineup he moves the club ...

On the last play of the game at Denver, Verneil broke free on a sneak and frisked 30 yards before he was tackled ...

ROBBY, BASILLIO THRILLER

The Robinson-Basilio scrap on TV at the Fairgrounds was one of the most exciting tiffs in recent history, although we thought the Sugar Daddy had a wafer-thin margin ... An interesting side-light: While watching the Alex Miteff-John Homan fight in Denver recently, we had an opportunity to talk with Bobby Boyd, one of the country's top middleweights.

He told this writer: "You watch that little Basilio in the late rounds. He's one of those smart guys who hit you upstairs and then down below and then upstairs ... you watch him." We did ... and he (Basilio) did ...

Titchenal and the SJS recruiting staff lost over 20 good football prospects this year because of this school's absurd athletic policies ... yet the coaching staff and the team suffer the bulk of the blame when losses occur ... Something's screwy ... And that's been said before for sure ...

IFC Winds Up Rushing

Fraternity rushing ends officially tomorrow afternoon when rushes pick up their bids in the Student Union between 1:30 and 4:30.

According to Al Corral, IFC rush chairman, all rushes must turn in a list indicating the fraternities they prefer to the Activities Office, Room 114, today. The fraternities will be able to pick up these lists in Dean Martin's office between 4:30 and 5 this afternoon.

The fraternities must turn their bids in to Dean Martin's office by 9 a.m. tomorrow.

Alumnae President To Inspect 30 Club

Mrs. Nadine Hanks, president of the San Francisco alumnae chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, national professional fraternity for women in journalism, will visit the college Friday Mrs. Dolores F. Spurgeon, associate professor of journalism, reported.

Mrs. Hanks is visiting the college to make an official inspection as regional representative of Theta Sigma Phi.

After the visit she will report to the national council as a preliminary step to admitting the 30 Club, women's journalism group into the order.

Spinners To Stop Dancing

set up to provide an opportunity for students to learn folk dances for the sheer enjoyment of them. They have always entertained at Freshman Camp.

State festivals of folk dancing were attended by the college group. The Spinners once sponsored a state festival at the Civic Auditorium. The auditorium was so jam-packed that many visitors had to be turned away for lack of room.

Mrs. Sarah Wilson, assistant professor of physical education, was the original sponsor of the Spinners on campus until Dr. and Mrs. Carl D. Duncan took over the group. Dr. Duncan is chairman of Natural Sciences. Mrs. Duncan has acted as teacher and caller for the Spinners.

MUSICIAN MUST ADAPT

"Folk dance music cannot be played by most American musicians," Dr. Duncan stated. "This is because the musician must adapt himself to the dance rather than the dancer to the music." In popular dance music, the dancer must follow the music.

Folk dancing is so popular that the cities of San Francisco and Oakland open up their civic auditoriums each year to hundreds of folk dancers during the annual festivals. And here at SJS a small group has to fold up because there is no room for them to dance.

Sigma Delta Chi To Meet Tonight

Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity, will meet today at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Gordon Greb, adviser, 781 Melannie Ct. Bob Craft, president, announced.

"Send home" edition of The Spartan Daily and the sale of Dick Bibler's book, "Little Man on Campus" are items to be considered, Craft added.

Lutheran Students To Hear Pastor

"Divided and United Lutherans," a talk about the different synods of the Lutheran church, will be given tonight at 7 o'clock by the Rev. John Arthur, campus pastor of the Lutheran Students Assn. The meeting will be held in the Student Christian Center, 92 S. 5th St.

The Rev. Mr. Arthur stated that persons representing varying faiths will speak at future meetings of the L.S.A. There will be weekly Tuesday afternoon discussions beginning on Oct. 15 at 3:30. Refreshments will be served at these gatherings.

Oboe Concert

Early music for the oboe will be played by Wayne Sorensen, assistant professor of music, for today's Survey of Music Literature class at 11:30 a.m. in the Concert Hall of the Music Building. The class is open to the public.

Before obtaining its charter to the fraternity, the 30 Club must send copies of the petition, granted last year, to the 56 college chapters, which will vote on the approval.

Final acceptance is expected in the spring, according to Mrs. Spurgeon.

Palo Alto alumnae chapter of the national order is contributing the charter fee of $50 to the campus group.

Stanford University and University of California already have chapters of Theta Sigma Phi. Alumnae groups are in San Francisco, Oakland-Berkeley and Palo Alto.

Independents Hold Meeting

The Independent Boarding House Council, a sub-committee of AWS, will hold its first meeting at 4:30 p.m. today in Room 21. The council is composed of two representatives from each boarding house, according to Marilyn Goodell, vice-president.

Letters were sent to each boarding house requesting that the members send two representatives to the first meeting. The council plans the Independents' floats for the Homecoming parade and also plans other activities for women students.

Students Asked To Finish Forms

The following students are requested by Glen E. Guttormsen, accounting officer, to report to the Accounting Office, Room 34, as soon as possible.

For the completion of important business in the Accounting Office: Alfred Beck, Gene W. Buffum, James L. Williams, and Miss Norma I. Williams.

'The Titan' Scheduled For Monday Showing

"The Titan," a documentary motion picture dealing with the work, life and times of Michelangelo, will be shown free in the College Theatre Monday at 7:30 p.m.

The showing is part of the "out-standing movies" series being inaugurated this year, under the guidance of Dr. Hugh W. Gillis of the Speech and Drama Department and assisted by the Student Body Social Affairs Committee.

"The Titan" is an extraordinary documentary that recreates the work, life and times of Michelangelo without showing a glimpse of a single human actor. It is described by Dr. Gillis as combining skillful camera work and editing with a distinguished musical score and narration by Frederic March.

The picture sets the Renaissance stage for Michelangelo's emergence, shows the influence of contemporaries and ancients, carries the unseen hero through papal and princely intrigues, the bloody uprising of Savonarola, the siege of Florence and the sack of Rome.
